

Postsecondary Teaching, Graduate Certificate (Boston)

The Certificate in Postsecondary Teaching prepares graduate students to be effective teachers and educators both inside and outside the classroom. It focuses on both didactic training in best practices and pedagogy around traditional teaching as well as online teaching. Finally, it is anchored by a teaching practicum where students put into practice what they have learned.

Program Requirements

Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses
INPR 5100	Foundations of Evidence-based Postsecondary Teaching	4
INPR 5110	Integrating Teaching Across Contexts	4
INPR 5120	Postsecondary Teaching Practicum	4

Program Credit/GPA Requirements

12 total semester hours required

Minimum 3.000 GPA required