

Applied Psychology in Context, Graduate Certificate (Boston)

The Graduate Certificate in Applied Psychology in Context provides students with a strong foundation in scientific research and practice in applied psychology with options to focus in areas of interest, including child/adolescent/family, using a core and elective structure. The fully online, asynchronous graduate certificate offers students an opportunity to develop clinical skills for nonlicensed employees in healthcare, school, and other community-based organizations.

Program Requirements

Core Requirements

Code	Title	Hours
CAEP 5879	Trauma and Mental Health	3
CAEP 5880	Clinical Skills in Context	3
CAEP 6203	Understanding Culture and Diversity	3

Elective

Code	Title	Hours
Complete one of the following based on your area of focus:		3
CAEP 6242	Psychopathology: Diagnosis and Treatment Planning
CAEP 6247	Child and Adolescent Psychopathology

Program Credits/GPA Requirements

12 total semester hours required

Minimum 3.000 GPA required