

Course Registration and Advising

Students are encouraged to obtain advisor approval of course selections each semester. This approval is required for all assistantship recipients, and some departments require it for all students. Students should check with individual departments for specific guidelines.