

Global Partnership Programs

Students enrolled in a College of Professional Studies' global partnership are required to abide by the policies and procedures of both institutions or as specified in their program.