

Collegiate Athletics Administration, Graduate Certificate (Boston)

College athletics in the United States is comprised of more than 1,200 schools, conferences, and organizations that collectively invest in the well-being of student-athletes—both on and off the field.

The Graduate Certificate in Collegiate Athletics Administration offers students an opportunity to obtain an in-depth understanding of the largest amateur segment of the sports industry. Through the program's curriculum, students will be given the opportunity to acquire leadership skills and knowledge in a variety of collegiate athletics topics including sports management, NCAA compliance, fund-raising, academic advising, gender and diversity in sport, and Title IX legislation.

Credits earned in this certificate may be used to satisfy some of the degree requirements Master of Sports Leadership (<https://catalog.northeastern.edu/graduate/professional-studies/masters-degree-programs/master-of-sports-leadership/>) program. For further information see the Seeking More Than One Certificate or Degree (<https://catalog.northeastern.edu/graduate/professional-studies/academic-policies-procedures/seeking-more-than-one-certificate-or-degree/>) page.
