

Informatics, Graduate Certificate (Boston)

The Graduate Certificate in Informatics offers students an opportunity to learn and improve information technology technical and management skills, highlighted by our curriculum on IT strategy and governance, interactive system design and web development, and cloud computing application and management.

Program Requirements

Complete all courses and requirements listed below unless otherwise indicated.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
ITC 6150	Database Application and Management	3
ITC 6205	IT Strategy and Governance	3
ITC 6250	Interactive System Design and Web Development	3
ITC 6650	Cloud Computing Fundamentals, Applications, and Management	3

Program Credit/GPA Requirements

12 total semester hours required

Minimum 3.000 GPA required