

Insurance Analytics and Management, Graduate Certificate (Online)

The Graduate Certificate in Insurance Analytics and Management addresses the mounting need for talent in the insurance industry, focusing on disruptive trends and the inherent challenges that this industry sector faces. This certificate offers learners an opportunity to gain appropriate technical skills, insurance design expertise, and experience to assume professional roles in the insurance field.

Program Requirements

Complete all courses and requirements listed below unless otherwise indicated.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
INS 6100	Introduction to Insurance Data Analytics	3
INS 6150	Intermediate Insurance Analytics	3
INS 6250	Claims Management	3
INS 6300	Insurance Underwriting	3

Program Credit/GPA Requirements

12 total semester hours required

Minimum 3.000 GPA required