

Student Organizations

All recognized student organizations are part of Northeastern University and are bound by policies and procedures in this handbook. Students out of good standing with Northeastern may have limitations imposed on their ability to represent the university in any intercollegiate activities or in any program or performance of any student organization. Students on deferred suspension may not hold any office or position, either by election, appointment, or petition, in any recognized student organization or group.

Student Organization Officers

Any student wishing to hold an office must have a 2.500 overall grade-point average prior to being elected or appointed to that position. Members of the Student Government Association executive board must have a 2.500 GPA to be elected and to maintain their positions. Officers are expected to be and shall be held accountable for the actions of their organization, consistent with applicable policies and protocols.
