

Global Partnership Programs

Students enrolled in a College of Professional Studies' global partnership or a dual degree program are required to abide by the policies and procedures of both institutions or as specified in their program.

Dual degree candidates must apply to graduate at each institution by following each institution's policies and procedures.