

Media and Screen Studies, Minor

The media and screen studies minor appeals to students interested in how media shapes society and is designed to prepare students for careers in arts and industry, politics, and popular culture. The minor offers students an opportunity to obtain the analytical skills necessary for the rigorous analysis of media within the humanities and social sciences. Students with a media and screen studies minor often find employment in film and television production, media marketing, film/media journalism, and other positions within the entertainment industry.

Minor Requirements

Complete all courses listed below unless otherwise indicated. Also complete any corequisite labs, recitations, clinicals, or tools courses where specified.

Media and screen studies majors may not declare the media and screen studies minor. Students must complete a minimum of three (3) courses exclusive to this minor beyond the courses required for the student's declared major(s) and additional minor(s).

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
MSCR 1220	Media, Culture, and Society	4
MSCR 2220	Understanding Media	4

Electives

Code	Title	Hours
Complete three courses in the following range:		12
MSCR 2000 to MSCR 4999

GPA Requirement

2.000 GPA required in the minor