

Food Systems Sustainability, Health, and Equity, Minor

The minor in food systems sustainability, health, and equity is an interdisciplinary exploration of the contemporary food system. Focuses on how the system evolved; its diverse societal, health, and environmental impacts; and ideas for making the food system more sustainable, healthy, and equitable for all.

Minor Requirements

Complete all courses listed below unless otherwise indicated. Also complete any corequisite labs, recitations, clinicals, or tools courses where specified.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Hours
Complete four courses from the following, two of which must be numbered 3000 or higher (no more than one course can also be used to fulfill a major requirement):
First-Level Courses
ANTH 2305	Global Markets and Local Culture
ENVR 1101	Environmental Science
ENVR 2401	Food Justice and Community Development
HSCI 1106	Contemporary Issues in Nutrition
HUSV 2401	Food Justice and Community Development
INNO 2206	Global Social Enterprise
INSH 1102	Food in Contemporary Context
PHIL 1185	The Ethics of Food
Upper-Level Courses
ECON 3404	International Food Policy
ENVR 3150	Food Security and Sustainability
ENVR 3300 and ENVR 3301	Geographic Information Systems and Lab for ENVR 3300
ENVR 3850	Sustainable Agriculture
INNO 4506	Integrated Studies in Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship
PHTH 5236	Food, Nutrition, and Health
PPUA 5263	Geographic Information Systems for Urban and Regional Policy
PPUA 5270	Food Systems and Public Policy

GPA Requirement

2.000 GPA required in the minor